NOTICE

Sub: Damage of Grit Wash on outer walls of apartments

1. It is our endeavor that we protect and preserve the Grit Wash on the common structures in the Society and the outer walls of the apartments. We have succeeded in this to a fairly good extent. From time to time the Society has taken initiative to redo the Grit Wash has worn out or fallen off on account of day to day wear and tear. This is an ongoing exercise which is done across the Society and shall continue.

2. It has come to the notice of the Management that many residents/owners who have done repair/renovation or minor permissible alterations have left unattended the Grit Wash that got damaged during the course of repair/renovation in their flats. Residents are requested to kindly get the damaged Grit Wash restored of their own so to maintain the outside look of the Society. The Society expect the residents to repair the damaged Grit Wash as part of their repair/renovation exercise without fail. Those who have failed to do so are requested to get the damaged Grit Wash restored urgently at their own expense. To facilitate this, the contact details of the Contractor from whom the Society is getting this work done is given below:

Contractor Name: Shri Pawan Kumar

Mobile No.: 9953943031

3. For any information in relation to the Contractor, the Society Office may be contacted. Cooperation of all residents/owners is solicited in this regard.
